Main article: When Will I be Famous? All About the Reputation and Fame Gua

In the world of Feng Shui, the Love and Relationships Gua, Finances Gua, Family Gua and Career Gua are the big 4. They are the ones that people most want to enhance, and the areas of their lives that they most often identify problems with. However, a Feng Shui practice is sort of like the human body. If you identify that your legs can't carry you towards the bus stop quickly enough, the problems is rarely your legs alone! You need to work on your cardiovascular strength, your muscular strength, the function of your liver and the amount of oxygen that your blood carries also. In some ways, the Reputation and Fame Gua is like the cardiovascular system of the body. It is critical to the health of many other areas of your life, but often abused and ignored!

Vital statistics

Your Reputation and Fame Gua:

- Occupies the middle square of the top row of the Bagua map
- Is ruled by the fire element
- Is fed by the wood element
- Good colors to use include red, pink, coral, green and brown
- Is tied with the season of summer
- Is strongly associated with areas of your home like the entrance, front gate and front door; your exterior landscaping; the outside of your house itself; mirrors within the home; and photos or paintings of yourself.

Your goals are tied with your reputation

Unfortunately (or perhaps, fortunately!), we can never truly know the mind of another person. The way that people understand and relate to you is closely tied with your reputation and their prior understanding of your character. In a way, this is the Gua of communication ... what you want to communicate to the world about yourself is linked to your Fame and Reputation Gua. You can see how effectively communicating your talents, personality and preferences could positively impact:

- Your career
- Your love life
- Your family life
- The type of people that are attracted to you; your mentors and helpful people
- Your finances, through both your career and your ability to get a loan

How to enhance the Reputation and Fame Gua

Fire rules the Reputation and Fame Gua; unfortunately this element can be difficult to incorporate into your home without a fireplace! You can do things like:

- Lighting candles when you are reading on the couch, rather than putting a lamp on
- Using candles in place of the electric light when you are in the bath
- Keeping your stove clean and attractive. If you need to upgrade the stove, get a gas one rather than the electric variety.
- Lighting sticks of incense around your home, or putting a tealight candle in an oil burner
- Keeping a nightlight on at the front of your house. Self-charging solar lights are an excellent, eco-friendly option.

- Keeping a nightlight on in the Reputation and Fame Gua (middle square of the top row)

Wood energy feeds fire energy, and you can introduce this with either green and brown color schemes, living plants, fake plants, or paintings/prints of plants.

Specific items that are linked to your fame and reputation in your community and personal interactions are great enhancements. Do you have any of the following? If you do, put them out for the world to see in your home:

- Awards and diplomas; pictures of you receiving these
- Trophies
- Pictures related to community service or volunteer work you've done
- Anything written by you that has been published
- Any of your artworks or poems

Photos of yourself are also a great enhancement ... and usually pretty easy to find!

Enhancing from the inside out

We know that Feng Shui helps you achieve lifestyle changes and goals through the collaborative efforts of the energy contained in your home, and the energy that you carry around with you and exude at all times. Ensuring that you have a good reputation and that your character is interpreted accurately by the people you encounter is a personal journey as well as one of redecoration! Activities like the following will help reinforce your home enhancements and kick-start improvement in the Gua:

- Going to parties that you are invited to, rather than staying at home
- Have lunch in the communal area at work, rather than at your desk
- Chat with store attendants when you are shopping
- Meditate. You will be much calmer and more rational, and better able to present your true personality to the world, when you have the relaxation and focus that meditation brings.
- Do to others as you would like to be done by. Most of us know this as a Christian ideal, but in reality it is simply a sensible ideal for living your life in a busy, complex society.

The Fame and Reputation Gua is not just for those who want to be actors and politicians ... everybody can benefit from enhancing it, in quite a holistic way.

Wealth Corner: How to Get Rich without Winning the Lottery

I am going to show you how to get rich without winning the lottery. I am not talking about bank robberies either. LOL As a side effect, you will also get lots of free time. What do you do with the money and the free time? It is totally up to you. You could travel the world and come back home twice a year to pick up your bonus checks. You could volunteer for church or charity, 300 days a year. You could go fishing 6 months a year, and skiing for the rest of the time. You could sit at home watching TV 12 hours a day and playing games for the other 12 hours.

The first training session will last 5 minutes. The topic is: How to get paid by saying one sentence. It will be conducted over phone and it is free of charge. All you need to do is to send an email to success@thespiritualfengshui.com , with your phone number including country and area code, your name and the best time to call. I will only make one call. If nobody answers, I will leave a short message. That is it.

What are the typical reactions from people once they understand your point?

“How do I get paid for it?”

“I want to collect the money I deserve!”

“Why didn’t you tell me earlier? I have missed my payment for so many years!”

As you can see, you just open the flood gate. The rest will be easy. All you need to do after that is to sign them up to your business and collect your payment.

Why am I doing it? Because it is the easiest way to find out who has the best potential to be successful in business and in life. Only positive, open-minded and hungry people will respond. If you happen to be the ones, congratulation! You are the cream of the crop.

Getting rich isn’t just about the money. Money is a means to an end. It’s about freedom. We all want freedom. The freedom to spend time with the people we love, the freedom to give our children the best, the freedom to help others and to be there for life’s most important moments.

After years of struggle myself, I have found the perfect solution for regular people, just like you. The secret is revealed in my free training. I am going to show you how to build a successful part time business that won't interfere with your regular job, but can bring in substantial extra income to your household.

Why 5 minutes? Because after talking to you for 5 minutes, we will both know if we could trust each other and work together. We will either part our way or continue from there. Don't worry. Even if you want to continue your training after first session, I will not charge you a penny.

You might ask: "Dear Mike, why do you want to contact me over phone? My answer is: "I will understand your situation and know you better, by talking to you; so that I could offer customized solution just for you. By talking to me, you will know that I am a real person, not a robot or computer program." :P

I bet you have another question in your mind. Your question is: "Will you truly teach me how to become rich and successful, for free?" I have to say: "Absolutely. You can call me nuts. Well ... no one's perfect. ^^ I failed many times until I reached my success. I'd like to share what I have learned with you, as long as you want, for free."

As a way to show my appreciation to your response, I will send you a free copy of "How to Get Rich without Winning the Lottery" via email. This 64-page E-book shows simple methods to get rich, retire wealthy and have the time of your life! It might help you a lot, might not, would you like to read it?

To schedule the free training, please email to success@thespiritualfengshui.com , with your phone number including country and area code, your name and the best time to call. I will send you the free E-book "How to Get Rich without Winning the Lottery" via email after the 5-minute call.

Alternatively, if you live in US or Canada, you could call me at 416 948-3572 every day after 11 am Eastern Time.

If you could take good care of your family and yourself, financially and spiritually, you are blessed with the best Feng Shui!

Note:

- This free training is only available for residents of USA, Canada, UK, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, German, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Netherland, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Puerto Rico, Romania, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, and Switzerland.
- You must speak English.
- Please let me know your country and time zone.

Q&A: But I don't WANT to be well known - and I've heard that real beauty is on the inside. Why should I focus on Reputation and Fame? Isn't that superficial?

Some people have a hard time internalizing the idea that the Reputation and Fame Gua can have an impact on the rest of your life. It is just so counter-intuitive that you would need to enhance your 'Fame' to improve your love life! Sometimes it helps to be more specific:

- If you want a promotion at work, or are going for a new job, your 'reputation' and the way people perceive you will be a critical deciding factor
- If you are looking for a partner, having a solid reputation as a generally good person will help draw suitable people to you. Effectively communicating your own character, skills and preferences will ensure you get a partner that is made for you!
- Your family act on their past knowledge of you and the outward character you portray as much as anyone else does. Enhancing the way you are perceived can truly improve your relationships - it gives them an excellent starting point, at least.
- Having a reputation that is both positive, and true to your real personality, ensures that the people that have something to offer you (ruled by your Mentors and Helpful People Gua) can find you, and want to connect with you.
- Having the right career ensures that you maximize your earning potential, thereby improving your Finance Gua.

None of the enhancements that we have mentioned in the main article will make you 'accidentally' famous! Don't worry that adding a mirror to your front porch and installing some solar lights will catapult you into the spotlight and seeing you fending off hordes of paparazzi on the way to your car. Feng Shui doesn't work like that :-).

Don't throw out the baby with the bathwater!

Some of the cures for the Reputation and Fame Gua suggested in the main article simply make good sense. In fact, most of Feng Shui is like this! You cannot possibly be harmed by:

- Doing to others as you would like them to do to you
- Meditating
- Speaking with people~

Real beauty IS on the inside...

However, nobody will have the chance to experience the beauty that is the real you, unless there is something to attract them. If you never speak to anybody, have a house that seems closed up and unwelcoming, and consistently show your stresses on the outside but not your joys, nobody will have the opportunity to see beyond your exterior.

Another analogy we can use is that of a brilliant poem, with misspellings and grammatical errors all through it. The substance remains the same when you take just the meaning of the words. But the appearance - the correct spelling and grammar - is in integral part of how we perceive the piece.

That is the heart of why you should enhance the Reputation and Fame Gua - because for your acquaintances and friends, it is inextricably linked with who you are on the inside.

*Feng Shui Tip: Bed time is Feng Shui time!

Many people spend more time in bed than they do in the rest of their home! It makes sense that your bed and bedroom should be one of the first areas to enhance, and the one you most frequently review. Start by:

- Ensuring that your room is sealed to light so that you can get a good night's sleep
- Buy a variety of different colored bedspreads and pillowslips - they can be changed when your Feng Shui goals change
- Place your bed against a wall, to create a feeling of stability in the room, and ensure the foot faces towards the bedroom door to increase feelings of security
- Keep your closets well-organized, even if you only see them for two minutes a day
- Use your favorite music on a timer to wake you up, and make sure you see something that inspires you on first waking up ... paintings or flowers are good choices.

Don't waste those 8 hours!
